

Diploma's that grant access to bachelor programmes in Dutch*.

International diplomas

- European Bacculaureate diploma
- International Bacculaureate Diploma
Only the IB Diploma grants admission. IB certificates are only taken into consideration in combination with national diplomas that grant admission to higher education. When you apply, please include official Predicted Grades from your school too.
- Cambridge International A-levels in 3 general, academic subjects with grades A-C
The Cambridge Advanced International Certificate of Education should also include three A-levels in academic subjects. The Cambridge Pre-University Diploma is sufficient for general admission.
- International School – US accredited
If you attend a US High School programme at an international school in your country, but accredited in the USA, please refer to the information on the US High School diploma listed below. You are requested to upload information on the schools accreditation when you apply.
