TIPS & TRICKS FROM CURRENT STUDENTS:

- Join the facebook group of your accommodation as soon as you have booked your room. This can also be useful for acquiring furniture. Ravel Residence offers to option to get to know your neighbor by linking a floor plan to facebook. The different groups are:
 - o Spinoza Campus
 - o Ravel Residence
- There are many facebook groups that sell or give away for free furniture. Join as many as possible! Also, don't be afraid to ask for furniture in these groups. Examples are:
 - o Spinoza te koop
 - o Uilenstede Buy Stuff
 - o Buy & Sell Amsterdam
 - o Gratis ophalen in Amsterdam
- Rent a van for a day or an afternoon to gather all your furniture. Rental companies in the neighborhood are Europcar or Diks
- First get your bed and fridge, all the other stuff can wait
- For delivery service you sometimes need a Dutch mobile phone number. You can get a free Lebara prepaid simcard on their webpage delivered to your new address. Later on you can switch to another provider, but this is a good one to get you started. Maybe bring an old phone to put the sim card in, so you can still be reached on your home mobile phone number.
- I got my furniture from IKEA they delivered it and montaged it - was still cheaper than renting furnished
- There is so much good furniture on the side of the road on the 'big trash' days, it is a lot of fun to discover these good items
- A bit of a hassle, but worth it for 3 years

ADVISE FROM THE ACCOMMODATION TEAM

- Once you book your room, we will offer you a 'Getting started' document with stores in the neighborhood
- Bring pictures and posters to make your room feel like home
- Ask for help if you need it. Dutch students like to help, but you do need to ask
- IKEA has some cool products to make optimum use of the space like a KALLAX room divider or a 2-person STORÅ high bed.
- Book a room in a hotel or hostel in the neighborhood for the first few nights so you can have a good night sleep and recover from your trip while you are also getting your room ready. OR
- Bring an inflatable mattress and a sleeping bag for your first night.

We've asked current students how much they spent on their new furniture:
